

BRIGHTENING VITAMIN C

If you are familiar with the skin alphabet, you are already aware of the major superpowers that Vitamin C possesses, and we're not just talking about supplementation. Vitamin C is a potent substance for all kinds of skin issues, with benefits such as antioxidant and anti-aging qualities, brightness, and clarity. Regular vitamin C use that goes above and beyond your food intake can aid in the battle against the oxidative damage brought on by free radicals or environmental pollutants.

BRIGHTENING AMLA & BHRINGRAJ

The Indian gooseberry, also known as Amla, has a particular position in Indian culture. Our grandmothers swore by this unique fruit originating from the Amalaki plant as a magical component for the hair. The "King of Herbs," Bhringraj, is one of nature's greatest gifts and has been utilized for eons in Ayurveda to promote healthy hair. Today, nothing has changed. The Amla & Bhringraj Hair Care Range demonstrates the fruits' beneficial effects on hair.
